Global Deejays

In 2004, the Global Deejays were formed, consisting of Dj Taylor, Flow and DJ Mikkel. The name suggest both their common passion for djing and dance music, as well as their multinational origins (the US, Denmark, Holland and Austria). Their first single "The Sound Of San Francisco" reached the Top 10 place in the charts in nearly every country around the world and cemented them in the international dance scene. With their second single "What A Feeling (Flashdance)" they were even able to top the success of the first in numerous countries. In summer 2005 they released the first Album called "Network", which is arranged with radio station Ids and salutes, making it sound like a live radio broadcast, and showing their wide music capabilities.

It also includes the third single "The Stars on 45". Following the success of the singles and the album they were awarded various international awards and music prizes. Mikkel left the group at the end of 2006.

In the beginning of 2007 they released the Single "Get up! (before the night is over)" which they produced together with Technotronic. With this track they reached the top of the dj- and dancecharts one more time, and had successful releases all over the world. They followed up their success in 2008 with the track "Everybody's free" – in cooperation with the 80ties Dancequeen Rozalla. In Russia and the CIS countries they additionally released a remake of the track "Zelenoglazoe Taxi" and reached number one positions in various charts as well as heavy rotation on almost all radiostations. The track is also featured in the worldwide bestseller game "GTA 4"

Already last year's "Everybody's Free" was Top 10 in various DJ and Dance Charts. This year "Everybody's Free 2009" was the track used in the television promo of the popular dance show "So You Think You Can Dance" Australia causing it to be the highest charting single in Australia, at #7.

Following their "Down Under" success, Global Deejays produced new mixes for 2009 putting them back on top of the charts in Europe again!
